19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived

This weekend we welcome our new parish priest Fr Robbie O'Callaghan - who has been invited by Bishop Patrick to care for souls within Bakewell; Hassop; Matlock and the surrounding villages. Fr Robbie was ordained a priest in 2008 and has served as Assistant Priest after ordination in St Barnabas Cathedral, Nottingham (2008), MA Studies (2010), Director of the Nottingham Youth Service (2011), Parish Priest of Our Lady of the Assumption, Beeston, Nottingham(2013) and Parish Priest of Our Lady and St Joseph's Church, Matlock with St Therese Church, Wirksworth (2016 to present). It is wonderful that we have a steady and hardworking priest to walk beside us on our journey of faith. The call to conversion - is universal, is all inclusive, and genuine saints recognize their need to respond to that call. The call to holiness is also universal, all inclusive. Jesus came to call sinners, as we so frequently hear at Mass. When we gather for the Eucharistic banquet, our sharing in Jesus' lavish sacrifice for sinners, let's not be like Simon the Pharisee and judge the others at the table nor reduce them to what we think is their worst.

If you wish to support the SVP with its work in the parish you can make a referral by visiting the church's website or by contacting Lance Philpott at lancep@svp.org.uk You can any loose change in the SVP box at the back of church. Lionesses - Fans watching the nail-biting final last Sunday occasionally saw the team's head coach kissing a wristband she was wearing at the game. And it has been revealed the gesture had a deep significance to her. Just a month before the championship, her sister passed away, and she took time away from the camp to grieve with her family. When she returned, the team asked if they could wear black mourning bands in their first game, in recognition of her loss. "They are such great people, and it shows how close we are. It was a great gesture, and I'm sure my sister would have been proud."

Sick and Housebound - We remember in our prayers - Bob Hilton, Gordon Smythe, Lily Chapman, Imelda Hanlon, Helen & Ann Holland, Anna Thompson, Peggy Flynn, Kath Dyson, and all those in nursing homes, and all our sick parishioners, family and friends.

O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams.
