Today's Gospel presents us a unique example of faith in Jesus' encounter with a Canaanite woman, a foreigner to the Jews. The scene unfolds while He is on the way to the cities of Tyre and Sidon, northwest of Galilee: it is here that the woman implores Jesus to heal her daughter who, the Gospel says, "is severely possessed by a demon". Initially the Lord seems not to listen to this cry of grief, so much so as to solicit the intervention of the disciples, who intercede for her. Jesus' apparent detachment does not discourage this mother, who insists in her invocation.

The inner strength of this woman, which enables her to overcome every obstacle, is found in her maternal love and in her confidence that Jesus can hear her request. And this makes me think of the strength of women. With their fortitude they are able to obtain great things. We have known so many of them! We can say that it is love that moves faith, and faith in turn becomes the reward of love. Her heartrending love for her daughter induces her "to cry: 'Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David!'. And her steadfast faith in Jesus enables her not to be discouraged, not even when faced with His initial refusal; so the woman "knelt before Him, saying: 'Lord, help me!'.

At the end, in face of such perseverance, Jesus remains in admiration, almost astonished by the faith of the pagan woman. Therefore, He consents saying: "O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire'. And her daughter was healed instantly". Jesus points out this humble woman as an example of unwavering faith. Her insistence on invoking Christ's intervention is a stimulus for us not to be discouraged, not to despair when we are oppressed by life's harsh trials. The Lord does not turn away in face of our needs and, if at times He seems insensible to requests for help, it is to test and strengthen our faith. We must continue to call out like this woman: Lord, help me! Lord, help me!". Like so, with perseverance and courage. And this is the courage we must have in prayer.

Important Safeguarding information - Please be aware that our Masses and Events are regularly recorded at Our Lady & St Joseph Church, Matlock and will appear online on our YouTube channel. If you would like to receive Holy Communion but wish not to be visible on YouTube, please request via a welcomer that Fr Robbie bring you communion to your pew.

Pilgrimage for Women
The Diocese of Nottingham is organising a Pilgrimage for Women to Lincoln Cathedral on Saturday the 9th of September. We will meet at 10:30 at the Cathedral, to be ready to celebrate Mass together at 11:00, following Mass we will have lunch together and then have a private tour of this historic church built by our diocesan patron Saint Hugh, and where he was laid to rest. The day should finish by 14:00. Please note that this is an event for those aged 18 and over. For more information and to book your place visit www.dioceseofnottingham.uk/events led by Retreat Master, Fr Gladson Dabre, OSA on Friday 8th September at Our Lady of Lincoln Church, Lincoln LN2 2HE starting at 18.00 with Mass. Experience healing and restoration through the transforming touch of God's healing grace during an evening of Prayer, uplifting Preaching, Adoration, Reconciliation and Healing Prayer ministry by trained teams.

Healing Service

Emmaus Bereavement Group (Autumn) - At whatever stage you are at in your Bereavement journey it can feel a very lonely place. Dealing with the loss of a loved one. Whenever you feel the need to talk don't be afraid to reach out and ask for help from those who care. For those of you who wish to join there will be a new Emmaus Bereavement Group starting in the Autumn. There will be a time to share – a time to listen to others – a chance to support – a chance for a fully agreed confidential journey as a group. Facilitator will be Fr Robbie and it will be held on the 2nd Wednesday in the month at Hassop and the 4th Wednesday of the month in Matlock, both starting at 7pm. You can choose to attend either, or both groups. More information will be available in September.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Serving others as we grow in faith and fellowship

Our St. Vincent de Paul parish members are men and women who strive to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to neighbours in need. Members of all ages, every race, and all incomes are welcome! We simply share an awareness that our blessings of time, talent, and treasure are to be shared with people in need. Please contact the Emmaus Hub if you require help and support in your life through the SVP.

Request a Mass Intention - Did you know? The custom of requesting a Mass for a specific intention, even when one cannot be physically present at the Mass, is a longstanding tradition in the Church. Masses can be offered to celebrate Baptisms, Birthdays, Anniversary, and/or to commemorate the anniversary of a loved one's death. Please contact the Emmaus Hub or submit a Mass Envelope from the church.

Why did God create you? What is He calling you to do? What line of work will fulfil you and truly make you happy? Discerning a vocation is a key step in everyone's life. Here is some helpful advice concerning the beautiful vocation of the Catholic priesthood. Marriage is a vocation, and so too are all the various professions, such as a doctor, teacher, or carpenter. God thus calls us all to a certain vocation, one which best suits our talents, best prepares us for Heaven, and most honours Him. Everyone has a duty to discern and fulfil this vocation. The priesthood is also a vocation, but one infinitely superior to all other vocations because it is supernatural. God wants to shower humanity with abundant blessings and graces, and He has chosen the priest to be the special instrument for this task. Without the priest and the sacraments, many souls will spiritually starve and will find it hard to get to Heaven. This is why discerning true priestly vocations is of the utmost importance.

The Last Supper with Jesus

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples asked Jesus: "Where would you like us to plan for you to eat the Passover feast?"

The Holy Mass in Church

Fr Robbie stands there as the 'Person of Christ' and invites all to the House of God and the Altar of Sacrifice. Our holy Mass is celebrated as a memorial of the Last Supper Jesus had with His disciples. He is Present in Holy Communion

Jesus blesses the Bread

He thanked God for the bread and shared it with the disciples and said, "Take this and eat it. This is my body which is given for you".

Jesus' words of Consecration over the Bread

Fr Robbie says the words Jesus said at the Last Supper and calls upon the Holy Spirit to come down upon the Bread which will become Jesus' Body.

Jesus blesses the Wine

Then He took a cup of wine, thanked God for it and said, "This is my blood, which will be poured out for many so their sins may be forgiven."

Jesus' words of Consecration over the Wine

Fr Robbie once again says the words Jesus said at the Last Supper and calls upon the Holy Spirit to come down upon the Wine which will become Jesus' Blood.

ENCOUNTER

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

DISCIPLESHIP

St Paul in response to a call of the Holy Spirit, the church in Antioch chose Barnabas and Paul to proclaim the gospel. They first traveled to Cyprus, then to Antioch in Pisidia, a city in present day west central Turkey.

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

"By virtue of Baptism we become 'missionary disciples,' called to bring the Gospel to the world (cf. Apostolic Exhortation 'Evangelii Gaudium,' n. 120). 'All the baptized, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization...."
