Jesus said to his disciples,
“Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

“The Second Vatican Council has reminded us of the mystery of this power and of the fact that Christ's mission as Priest, Prophet and King continues in the Church. “Everyone, the whole People of God, shares in this threefold mission. Perhaps in the past, the tiara, this triple crown, was placed on the Pope's head in order to express by that symbol the Lord's plan for his Church, namely that all the hierarchical order of Christ's Church, all "sacred power" exercised in the Church, is nothing other than service, service with a single purpose: to ensure that the whole People of God shares in this threefold mission of Christ and always remains under the power of the Lord; a power that has its source not in the powers of this world but in the mystery of the Cross and Resurrection.”

Pope John Paul II
Inauguration of his Pontificate,
St. Peter's Square, Sunday, 22 October 1978

At whatever stage you are at in your Bereavement journey it can feel a very lonely place. Dealing with the loss of a loved one. Whenever you feel the need to talk don't be afraid to reach out and ask for help from those who care.

For those of you who wish to join there will be two new Emmaus Bereavement Group sessions starting in September.

There will be a time to share, a time to listen to others, a chance to support, a chance for a fully agreed confidential journey as a group.

The facilitator will be Fr Robbie and they will be held on the 1st Wednesday in the month at Matlock and the 4th Wednesday of the month in Hassop, both starting at 7pm.

You can choose to attend either, or both groups. More information will be available in September.

The absolute and yet sweet and gentle power of the Lord responds to the whole depths of the human person, to his loftiest aspirations of intellect, will and heart. It does not speak the language of force but expresses itself in charity and truth.

I will be meeting with Caroline in the next few weeks, and I ask you to respond to any requests from her for updates on your DBS and volunteer status. Caroline’s new email address is across from this notice – please contact her for any concerns you might have in the future – the protection of children and vulnerable adults is all our responsibility. I thank Caroline for her generosity in volunteering, whilst also working fulltime. Fr Robbie
