“If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. Matt 18:15”

Who hasn't been hurt by the actions or words of another? Perhaps a parent constantly criticized you growing up, a colleague sabotaged a project or your partner had an affair. Or maybe you've had a traumatic experience, such as being physically or emotionally abused by someone close to you. These wounds can leave lasting feelings of resentment, bitterness and anger — sometimes even hatred.

But if you hold on to that pain, you might be the one who pays most dearly. By embracing forgiveness, you also can embrace peace and hope. Consider how forgiveness can lead you down the path of physical, emotional and spiritual well-being.

Forgiveness means different things to different people. But in general, it involves an intentional decision to let go of resentment and anger.

The act that hurt or offended you might always be with you. But working on forgiveness can lessen that act's grip on you. It can help free you from the control of the person who harmed you. Sometimes, forgiveness might even lead to feelings of understanding, empathy and compassion for the one who hurt you.

Forgiveness doesn't mean forgetting or excusing the harm done to you. It also doesn't necessarily mean making up with the person who caused the harm. Forgiveness brings a kind of peace that allows you to focus on yourself and helps you go on with life. Mayo Clinic

For those of you who wish to join there will be two new Emmaus Bereavement Group sessions starting in September.

There will be a time to share, a time to listen to others, a chance to support, a chance for a fully agreed confidential journey as a group.

The facilitator will be Fr Robbie and they will be held on the 1st Wednesday in the month at Matlock and the 4th Wednesday of the month in Hassop, both starting at 7pm.

Last year was Churches Together In Matlock's first prayer breakfast at the Imperial Rooms and we have decided to plan another, this time at St Helen's, Darley Dale. All are welcome and you can just turn up but it would be so helpful to know roughly how many are planning to come, for catering purposes, and also for what allergies we need to cater. The meeting is on Saturday 23rd September - please could you reply with numbers/allergies by Monday 18th September via Fr Robbie

The leading supermarkets, Tesco, Morrisons, ASDA, Waitrose, Sainsbury's, Iceland, and Ocado partner with online fundraising company easyfundraising, to give your church a way of receiving funding – for free. How it works is simple. An online shopper buys their weekly food shop with one of the above brands, and the supermarket then sends your church a free donation as a thank you. In most cases, supermarkets offer a flat monetary amount of up to £5, and others offer a percentage based on what the online shopper spends. On average, just one person could earn your church £97.50 in a year by doing their food shop; think what multiple people could do.
