Solemnity of All Saints - Tuesday 1st November - The Story of the Solemnity of All Saints - The earliest certain observance of a feast in honor of all the saints is an early fourth-century commemoration of "all the martyrs." In the early seventh century, after successive waves of invaders plundered the catacombs, Pope Boniface IV gathered up some 28 wagonloads of bones and reinterred them beneath the Pantheon, a Roman temple dedicated to all the gods. The pope rededicated the shrine as a Christian church. According to Venerable Bede, the pope intended "that the memory of all the saints might in the future be honored in the place which had formerly been dedicated to the worship not of gods but of demons". Mass at Matlock at 10:00am & Hassop at Noon

The Story of the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed - Commemoration of All Souls - Wednesday 2nd - The Church has encouraged prayer for the dead from the earliest times as an act of Christian charity. "If we had no care for the dead," Augustine noted, "we would not be in the habit of praying for them." Yet pre-Christian rites for the deceased retained such a strong hold on the superstitious imagination that a liturgical commemoration was not observed until the early Middle Ages, when monastic communities began to mark an annual day of prayer for the departed members. In the middle of the 11th century, Saint Odilo, abbot of Cluny, France, decreed that all Cluniac monasteries offer special prayers and sing the Office for the Dead on November 2, the day after the feast of All Saints. The custom spread from Cluny and was finally adopted throughout the Roman Church. The theological underpinning of the feast is the acknowledgment of human frailty. Since few people achieve perfection in this life but, rather, go to the grave still scarred with traces of sinfulness, some period of purification seems necessary before a soul comes face-to-face with God. The Council of Trent affirmed this purgatory state and insisted that the prayers of the living can speed the process of purification. Mass at Matlock at 10:00am & Hassop at Noon

Blessing of Graves

Hassop - Sunday 6th November at 3pm - All Saints Cemetery

Matlock - Sunday 20th November at 3pm - Darley Dale Cemetery

I will start with a short service, starting this year from right to left looking from the car park(M)/gate(H) and bless individual graves (alternate each year)

Remembrance Sunday 13th November 2022...

...is a day for the nation to remember and honour those who have sacrificed themselves to secure and protect our freedom. Each year at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, we observe a Two Minute Silence.

Heating at Matlock & Hassop - St Joseph's, Matlock and All Saints, Hassop like yourselves, is feeling the effects of the drastic increase in fuel prices this winter. To try to manage the effects of this, please make sure when you enter and leave the church, that the doors are closed behind you. Please also bear in mind that we have old buildings that get cold quickly, We cannot always guarantee that we will always have a warm church - therefore on colder days, please make sure that you wrap up warm - you can always take off extra layers if it's too warm.

Hassop & Bakewell - News for the Pews

Welcome to our Visitors & Parishioners

You are welcome to come into the parish rooms for coffee after Mass.

Shirley Hulmes RIP - It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Shirley. Her Requiem Mass will be on Friday 28th October at All Saints Church, Hassop at 2pm. All are most welcome to celebrate her life and attend Mass. May she rest in peace.

Faith - A group of botanists were exploring almost inaccessible regions in search of new species of flowers. One day they spied, through binoculars, a flower of great rarity and beauty. It lay in a deep ravine, with perpendicular cliffs on both sides. To reach it someone would have to be lowered over the sheer precipice by means of a rope, and it was certainly a very dangerous undertaking. Approaching a young lad nearby, who was watching them with great curiosity, they said, "We'll give you twenty dollars if you let us lower you down below, to obtain that beautiful flower for us." The young lad took a look down into the ravine, and then he said, "Wait here; I'll be back." When he returned, he was accompanied by an older man. Approaching one of the botanists, he said, "I'll go over the cliff, and get that flower for you, if this man holds the rope. He's my father." Faith is a direct response to love

Are you discerning God's call?

Sick and Housebound - We remember in our prayers - Marie Hopkinson, Pat Erskine-Murray, Maria Hutchinson, Juliet & Peter Peel, Annalise & Shirley Plant, and all those in nursing homes, and all our sick parishioners, family and friends.

Mass Intentions - We have spaces in our diary for anyone who wishes to have a Mass offered for a loved one, living or deceased.

William Wordsworth - In November 1830, the famous English poet William Wordsworth travelled through Derbyshire. Wordsworth was not visiting as a tourist, taking only 3 days to pass through Derbyshire, starting at Chapel-en-le-frith and leaving by Swarkestone Bridge, south of Derby. During his journey Wordsworth travelled through Tideswell, Cressbrook and Ashford-in-the-Water before spending the night in Bakewell, perhaps in the Rutland Arms, on Bonfire Night. Wordsworth then visited Chatsworth before travelling on to Derby. Despite his short stay Wordsworth did write two poems about Chatsworth, one being written on the spot and the second being a revised and polished version of the first.
