ALL HALLOWS' EVE - OCTOBER, 31ST

All Hallows' Eve - falls on 31st October each year, and is the day before All Hallows' Day, also known as All Saints' Day in the Christian calendar. The Church traditionally held a vigil on All Hallows' Eve when worshippers would prepare themselves with prayers and fasting prior to the feast day itself. The name derives from the Old English 'hallowed' meaning holy or sanctified and is now usually contracted to the more familiar word Hallowe'en.

In the early 7th century Pope Boniface IV consecrated the Pantheon in Rome, formerly a temple to all the gods, as a church dedicated to Saint Mary and the Martyrs, and ordered that that date, 13th May, should be celebrated every year. It became All Saints' Day, a day to honour all the saints, and later, at the behest of Pope Urban IV (d. 1264), a day specially to honour those saints who didn't have a festival day of their own.

In the 8th century, on 1st November, Pope Gregory III dedicated a chapel to all the saints in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Gregory IV then made the festival universal throughout the Church, and 1st November has subsequently become All Saints' Day for the western Church.

Praying together:

Two peoples, one land,
Three faiths, one root,
One earth, one mother,
One sky, one beginning, one future, one destiny,
One broken heart,
One God.

We pray to You:

Grant us a vision of unity.
May we see the many in the one and the one in the many.
May you, Life of All the Worlds,
Source of All Amazing Differences
Help us to see clearly.
Guide us gently and firmly toward each other,
Toward peace. Amen.

Mass Vestments - It has been seven years since I arrived as your Parish Priest. On arrival I sourced vestments for the holy Mass in each colour. They have now become quite threadbare, and we are in great need of new ones. If you would like to buy one in memory of a loved one or in support of the Parish, they cost £150.00 each. We have already had: White; Red; Purple; Green purchased by parishioners - there is still Pink and a Marian vestment left if you are interested in supporting the Mass in this way. Thank you so much, Fr Robbie

Sunday 5:30pm Mass - Matlock
A MASS FOR THE BUSY CATHOLIC

Looking ahead to November - November is the Month of the Holy Souls. You will find in the entrance to church the November Dead List Envelopes, please write the names of deceased family members and friends to be included in the envelope with a donation, which can either be given to me or dropped through the letter box of the Presbytery. The names of your deceased relatives and friends and all for whom you wish to pray will then be placed in a basket close to the Altar throughout the month of November and at the end of November I will divide these names up into special Masses for the intentions of 'The Holy Souls - November Dead List.' These Masses will be offered by me for you throughout the year. Their names will also be placed in our Book of Remembrance on the sanctuary. Blessings Fr Robbie

All Hallows' Eve - Let us make this year's celebration an act of true devotion to God, whose saints give us hope that we too may one day enter into the Kingdom prepared for God's holy ones from the beginning of time.
