‘Glorify your Son so that your Son may glorify you’

These are the opening words of the prayer that the evangelist attributes to Jesus at the Last Supper, on the night before he died. Jesus speaks of the hour, towards which his whole life has been directed. Jesus prays that the Father will glorify him. This will happen through his death and resurrection, and the subsequent raising of Christ, with his risen humanity, to the presence of God. Through this Easter mystery eternal life is bestowed on those who believe.

The work of Jesus is now complete, and he prays for those who through his preaching have come to know the Father's name. He distinguishes them from the world which does not know or accept him. These true disciples have realized that Jesus comes from the Father and that his teaching is true and reliable.

Jesus stresses that his prayer is for those who believe and not for the world. While Jesus is soon to leave this world, his faithful followers will remain to continue his work. They will be supported by the prayer of Christ to the Father.

What does Jesus mean when he says he is glorified?

How best can we hold firm to the teaching Jesus has given us?

Pray that the Church will be always aware of the prayer of Christ on our behalf.

Pray for strong faith which trusts that where Jesus has gone we too will follow.

Rev Dr Adrain Graffy, Diocese of Brentwood, 2023

Hassop & Bakewell - News for the Pews

Sick and Housebound - Thoughts and prayers for: Marie Hopkinson, Pat Erskine-Murray, Maria Hutchinson, Peter Peel, Annalise & Shirley Plant, Mary Howlings, Henry Coleman, Gerry Carlton and all our sick parishioners and friends.

We Need More Readers - A Huge thank you to all our valued volunteers past & present. Your willingness to give your time and service is appreciated. Your support of our parish allows us to continue to fulfil our mission, serve God and the people in our community each year.

World Communications Sunday - The Holy Father asks us to listen before speaking with the heart, which radically challenges the times in which we are living, which are so inclined towards indifference and indignation, at times even on the basis of disinformation which falsifies and exploits the truth.' Next weekend, there will be a second collection to support the work of the Catholic Communications Network, which assists the Bishops of England and Wales in explaining the Catholic faith and representing the Church in the media.

A Retreat Day open to all is being hosted by the Nottingham Secular Discalced Carmelites - mas a time of prayer and adoration in preparation for the solemnity of Corpus Christi, on Saturday 10th June from 8.00am until 4.00pm, at Saint John's Church, Midland Avenue, Stapleford NG9 7BT. Come when you can, stay as long as you wish, light refreshment as well as members of the community will be present throughout. Heather Ward: heatherward55@gmail.com or 01773 599982.

The Oratory Prayer Book (New Publication) - Carefully typeset and beautifully printed on heavy cream paper, these small hardback books have been designed to last. They have a ribbon for marking the pages you use the most, but they are also the perfect size to house a collection of prayer cards and holy images. The Oratory was founded by St Philip Neri to help teach everyone to pray. This book is a small contribution from the Oratory in Oxford to that mission. The Oratory Prayer Book is available now from the Oratory Bookshop in Oxford priced £8.95. www.oxfordoratory.org.uk Delivery is £2.05 by Royal Mail 2nd class, UK only, or send us a message at prayerbook@oxfordoratory.org.uk

A visitor's comments on visiting our parish church last week...

Dear Fr Robbie, just a quick note to say a huge thank you for showing Sophie and I around All Saints Church, Hassop last week. I've wanted to see the church for a really long time, so it was wonderful to be able to visit. Well done to you all on all the excellent work you are doing, it sounds like the community is thriving, and your plans for the presbytery are exemplary.

Josephine Warren, Historic Churches Adviser, Policy and Research Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales
