The mission of the Holy Spirit is to bring everyone to Christ. The Spirit prepares everyone and invites them to Christ. With the gift of Christ's risen life, the Spirit unites all believers to Christ and places them in communion with the Father. Since the Spirit unites all in Christ, the Spirit builds up the Church Christ found on earth.

The Church shares in the mission of the Spirit and reveals the work of the Spirit. As the Church evangelizes, it shares in the Spirit's work. As the Church prays to and worships God in sacrament, it shows the world the work of the Spirit. In this sense, the Church becomes a co-worker and an instrument of the Spirit. As long as we, members of the Church, show our love for God in sincere prayer and show our love for neighbour in acts of kindness, we demonstrate our life in the Spirit.

Diocesan Pew News

THE NEW LECTIONARY UPDATE

Publication for use will be Advent 2024 and it is planned that there will be four volumes. A new Book of the Gospels will also be available around the same time. The new edition of the Lectionary will replace previous editions of the Lectionary, those based on the Jerusalem Bible and the Revised Standard Version.

New Apostolic Nuncio to Great Britain

It is with joy that we learn the news, that His Holiness Pope Francis has appointed His Excellency Archbishop Miguel Maury Buendía as Apostolic Nuncio to Great Britain.

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY - This Sunday is Safeguarding Sunday. It is a reminder for us all to reflect on the importance of safeguarding and to take care to look out for each other. There are some changes to the way in which the Diocese want us to manage the process. All volunteers, whether having contact with children and vulnerable adults or not (i.e. DBS and non-DBS roles) will need to be formally recorded in the Parish Hub. This will require some paperwork, which will follow in due course. Some documents will be placed at the back of the church (notably the Parish Safeguarding Handbook) as a resource for anybody who would like to find out more about Safeguarding, such as available training.

Gordon Charge RIP - It is with sadness that we announce the passing of Gordon who died on 24th April. His Requiem Mass will take place this coming week at All Saints Church, Hassop on Wednesday 17th May at 1pm, followed by burial at Hassop Cemetery. Please keep all the family in your thoughts and prayers. May he rest in peace.

Sick and Housebound - Thoughts and prayers for: Marie Hopkinson, Pat Erskine-Murray, Maria Hutchinson, Peter Peel, Annalise & Shirley Plant, Mary Howlings, Henry Coleman, Gerry Carlton and all our sick parishioners and friends.

“...for if a thief could receive the grace of paradise, how could a Christian be refused forgiveness?” Saint Maximus of Turin

May is for Mary

Every tree, every flower is a poem for thee,
 Every landscape is richer when thy shrines grace it;
 Dost thou watch the lamps that burn at thy grottoes?
 Dost thou hark to the chorus that swells through the ages?
 Dost thou hear the canticles that rise from thy children,
 Virgin of virgins and Mother of mothers,
 Royal priestess descended from Abraham and David?
 Chosen from all eternity queen rose of the world?
 Remember, O Mary, despite all thy mildness,
 Thou art terrible like an army in battle array;
 Arise from thy bridal chambers in heaven,
 Chase away the dark clouds that shut out the sun,
 The mists that hover over the rivers and brooks,
 Send a new spring full of shining flowers,
 Spring in the hearts of youths and maidens,
 Spring in the souls of men and women,
 Spring in the darkened minds of the rulers,
 That thy prophecy be not made in vain,
 That this generation, too, will call thee blessed. Anon.

Praise for May's Queen

Grace was poured out over thy lips
 When thou cam'st forth like the morning rising
 Like the rainbow smiling over the clouds.
 The daughters of Sion saw thee walking
 And called thee blessed, eternal woman
 Whose eyes are pools of mystery and mercy,
 Whose mouth only utters words of wisdom,
 Whose mother hands spread only blessing.
 Blessed is thy womb that bore God's Son,
 Who came leaping from the hills of heaven,
 Fleet like a young roe to kiss thy brow
 And call thee mother, and winter ceased on the earth;
 Forever the Spirit's bride and the Father's
 Beloved daughter unlike all others,
 God's turtledove, God's white swan,
 Woman clothed with the sun and the moon at thy feet,
 And a crown of twelve stars upon thy head
 Sparkling like gold and the hue of the crocus. Anon.

Coronation Cakes - Thank you to Team Bowen, especially Chris, who made our Coronation cakes last weekend as part of their ongoing fundraising in memory of their father Ben Bowen. Through walks, cake making and adventure they work hard to raise funding for the Alzheimer's Society and their research. ## A Letter for Safeguarding Sunday from Bishop Patrick

To be included in parish newsletters and / or put on the noticeboard on the weekend 13th / 14th May 2023

Today is Safeguarding Sunday, an opportunity to reflect a little on our ongoing journey as a diocese to build a safer environment for every person. You will recall that the Elliott review in 2020 recommended that the Catholic Church in England and Wales put in place a national Safeguarding body. In July 2021 the Catholic Safeguarding Standards Agency was formed. Its task is to ensure that all dioceses are regulated to meet the national standards in Safeguarding.

As a diocese, we have worked well to develop clear structures and guidance for our Safeguarding practices so as to help ensure safe environments through the promotion of best practice. This has included, regular training in Safeguarding for the clergy, diocesan staff and parish volunteers; ensuring that everyone is safely recruited; that victims and survivors are carefully listened to and supported, and that we are always transparent and accountable in the way that allegations and concerns are managed effectively. I welcome this opportunity to thank our central Safeguarding team, Rachael Campion, Alan Booth and Jane Black, for all their good work. I would also like to express my gratitude to the parish Safeguarding Representatives for their hard work and commitment. Through them we are now embedding excellent Safeguarding practice across our parishes and chaplaincies to make our churches safe and welcoming. The diocesan website has all our Safeguarding information and the support that is offered to our parishes and chaplaincies.

Finally, thank you for all that you each do to help ensure that our churches are safe and welcoming. I say this because we cannot simply delegate this duty to parish Safeguarding Representatives or the Diocesan Safeguarding Team. Keeping everyone safe is part and parcel of the DNA of every Christian; an essential characteristic of our identity as Christ's followers, and so it must be reflected in the way we respect, protect, and treat each other with care. Only if each one of us is engaged in this way of thinking and acting can we continue to embed a culture of safeguarding throughout our diocese.

Your parish has someone who has generously volunteered** to help support the parish community in making your church a safe place to be, particularly for children, young people and vulnerable adults. But building this safe culture in our parishes can't just be left to them – it is the responsibility of all of us. Today, I urge everyone to give your parish rep your full support. Please join with them in fostering a deeper and more evident culture of safeguarding, care and protection for everyone in your parish. We can all play our part in ensuring that every single individual feels respected, safe, and loved, just as Our Lord asked of us: "as long as we love one another God will live in us and his love will be complete in us." (John 4:12)

With prayer and good wishes,

+ Patrick

Rt Rev Patrick McKinney
Bishop of Nottingham

**Footnote to priests / deacons: If no parish rep is currently in place please use the opportunity to raise this with the parish and to ask if anyone would be interested in finding out more about this role. As you know, Rachael and the central Safeguarding team offer excellent training.
