When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple courts he found people selling cattle, sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money. So, he made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. To those who sold doves he said, "Get these out of here! Stop turning my Father's house into a market!" His disciples remembered that it is written: "Zeal for your house will consume me."

Prayer for Victory - God, we live in a world, Your beautiful, fragile world, where creation feels under threat, where the rule of law seems fractured, where arrogant leaders cause havoc, and the poor are crushed under foot. Despite it all, this we believe: Goodness is stronger than evil; love is stronger than hate; light is stronger than darkness; life is stronger than death. Victory is ours, victory is ours through Him who loved us.

(Goodness Is Stronger Than Evil from Love and Anger, Wild Goose Publications)

The pope's prayer intention for the month of March - is dedicated to modern martyrs as witnesses to Christ. "The courage of the martyrs, the witness of the martyrs, is a blessing for everyone," he said in his video message, noting that it is estimated there are more martyrs today than during the time of the early church. "Let us pray that those who risk their lives for the Gospel in various parts of the world might imbue the church with their courage and missionary drive. And to be open to the grace of martyrdom," he said.
