Pope Francis says that the feast of the Most Holy Trinity this Sunday, is as an immense mystery which exceeds the capacity of our mind, but which speaks to our heart, because we find it enclosed in that expression of Saint John which sums up all of Revelation: "God is love. Insofar as God is love, and the one and only one, there is also communion between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Bond of unity - it is the Father who gives himself by generating the Son, who in turn gives himself to the Father, and their mutual love is the Holy Spirit, the bond of their unity. This mystery of the Trinity has been revealed to us by Jesus himself. He showed us the face of God as the merciful Father; He presented Himself, true man, as the Son of God and the Word of the Father. Jesus spoke of the Holy Spirit who proceeds from the Father and the Son, the Spirit of Truth, the Paraclete Spirit, that is, our Consoler and Advocate.

Mystery of love and light - makes us contemplate this wonderful mystery of love and light from which we come and toward which our earthly journey is guided. In the proclamation of the Gospel and in every form of the Christian mission. We cannot disregard this unity invoked by Jesus; the beauty of the Gospel demands to be lived and witnessed in harmony among us, who are so different. This unity, is essential to the Christian: it is not an attitude, an expression: no. It is essential because unity is the only way of life. It is essential, because unity is born of love, of God's mercy, of the justification of Jesus Christ and of the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts.

“...the Trinity does not work indivisibly, but the Father does some things, the Son other things, and the Holy Spirit yet others: or else, if they do some things together, some severally, then the Trinity is not indivisible.”

Tertullian’s work Against Praxeas (Adversus Praxeam) - uses a plant metaphor for the Trinity (chapter 8). He says that the three persons of the Trinity are like the root, trunk, and fruit of the tree. This has something of a similar character to the shamrock metaphor that St Patrick used, though the three parts for Tertullian have distinct roles, and the clover leaves are all the same.

Safeguarding Representative required - at St Joseph’s Church, Matlock. Do you think you have the skills to become our Safeguarding Rep? For more information about what’s involved and how to apply visit: <https://www.dioceseofnottingham.uk/departments/safeguarding> or speak to Fr Robbie. Training is given and the role is fully supported.

First Holy Communion Day - Next Sunday - 11th June at 11am

My advice for next Sunday is that if you can move your Mass attendance to the Saturday Vigil or Sunday at All Saints, Hassop you will avoid the crowds. If you can’t, then I would recommend arriving early as half the church will have reserved seating for the children and their families. I appreciate your patience and understanding on this yearly celebration for our children making their First Holy Communion. Fr Robbie
